In an Emergency, Call 911

If you smell natural gas, see downed power lines, or suspect another emergency situation, leave the area immediately and call 9-1-1.

Then, call PG&E at 1-800-743-5000.

To report structural damage or get information about current fires, and any additional emergency information contact the Sonoma County Emergency Operations Center:

BE PREPARED!

The fire has increased the risk of flash floods, so keep an eye to the sky. Know what the weather is doing around you and be prepared to move to higher ground if necessary. Have an emergency kit ready in case it becomes necessary for you to leave your home in a hurry. Be sure you have enough medications, water, clothing and non-perishable food to last 14 days.

If your home survived the fire, it is highly recommended that you obtain National Flood Insurance Program home insurance from FEMA. Speak with your insurance agent for details.

Homeowner, Business, and Landowner Resources

Sonoma Resource Conservation District (SRCD)

Contact: Jeff Schreiber
 (707) 569-1448
JSchreiber@sonomarc.org
<http://sonomarc.org/>

Programs:

- Site Visits and Planning for landowners to determine resource needs and appropriate actions concerning erosion, natural resource permit assistance on a fee for service basis, and technical assistance. Staff may conduct site assessments and planning.
- Community Education Programs in progress. Also, reference our website for the latest information.

Resources:

- Natural Resources Recovery Guide provides information for landowners as to what services local, county, and state organizations provide. Contact information, ways to acquire additional information, and general descriptions of programs and resources are supplied where applicable.
- Website will be updated regularly to include pertinent information regarding services and funding offered by the SRCD and other agencies for fire recovery.

Gold Ridge Resource Conservation District (GRRCD)

Contact: William Hart
 (707) 823-5244
william@sgoldridgercd.org
<http://www.goldridgercd.org/>

Programs:

- No-Till Drill rental sign-ups through the Gold Ridge Resource Conservation District. The cost is free for those that have been impacted by the fire. For residents within the District the cost is $150/day and $200/day for outside the district. Call the GRRCD to make your reservation, renter is responsible for pick up and drop off of the drill.

Benefits of using a No-Till Drill include;

- Reduces non-point source pollution
- Reduces soil erosion
- Protects water quality
- Helps build soil structure
- Reduces chemical runoff
- Reduces soil compaction
- Provides a permanent ground cover
- Retains soil moisture

(530) 792-5692
Anita.Brown@ca.usda.gov

Programs:

- Post-Fire Assistance for landowners by the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), Farm Service Agency (FSA), and Risk Management Agency (RMA). These agencies are meeting with landowners to assess damages and offer technical and financial assistance where possible.

With the high potential for winter rains, burned areas are at greater risk for erosion and mudflows and Emergency Watershed Protection (EWP) type services are key to preventing further damage. The program requires local government bodies or others to sponsor on-the-ground work including concrete barriers and debris basins, mulching, straw wattles and other damage control measures. Potential sponsors are encouraged to contact NRCS for more information.

Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP) and Emergency Conservation Program (ECP) can provide long-term support to repair livestock fencing, remove dead or dying trees, clear dense brush, install new livestock water facilities, and other agricultural services. Both NRCS and FSA are taking applications and encourage interested landowners to contact their local offices for more information.

Programs:

➤ Environmental Quality Incentives Program (EQIP)

- Immediately accepting applications for its EQIP Catastrophic Fire Recovery fund pool to assist producers in covering the cost of certain rehabilitation practices, such as creating check dams in drainages, using damaged trees to slow runoff, repairing culvert systems, and planting tree seedlings
- NRCS is waiving the standard 30-day application ranking period and is accepting applications for this initial fund pool through November 6, 2017

➤ Emergency Watershed Protection Program (EWP)

- NRCS works with local government entities in the impacted counties to mitigate potential hazards to life and property resulting from fires.

- Work may include removing debris, stabilizing streambanks, fixing water control structures, etc. <http://naparcd.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/10/EWP-brochure-2017.pdf>

- Technical and Educational Assistance for landowners impacted by fires that are faced with erosion and flooding in a damaged watershed.

Resources:

- Publications, Fact Sheets, and Videos can be found on the NRCS website at <https://www.nrcs.usda.gov/wps/portal/nrcs/main/ca/newsroom/features/>
 - Sonoma County After the Fire Fact Sheet series may be found here https://www.nrcs.usda.gov/wps/PA_NRCSConsumption/download/?cid=nrcseprd1359861&ext=pdf

NRCS is available to help with recovery. The website is updated to have local fact sheets on how to address property damage after the fires. Your local NRCS offices are working on program information for cost sharing on some repairs. Please contact your local field office before starting work so that you are signed up for any financial assistance that may be available to help pay for practices. The website will also be updated with additional program information links as they become available (such as specialty EQIP funds). Fact sheets regarding programs offered will be available in the near future as well.

Farm Service Agency (FSA)

If you had damages to your crops, livestock, farm equipment, barns, dairy, etc., you should contact your local Farm Services Agency office to inquire about the USDA's disaster assistance program.

Programs:

- Forestry/Landowner Assistance Cal Fire administers several state and federal forestry assistance programs with the goal of reducing wildland fuel loads and improving the health and productivity of private forest lands and expanding and improving management of trees and related vegetation in urban communities across California. The Forest Stewardship Program and California's Forest Improvement Program (CFIP) offer cost-share opportunities to assist individual landowners with land management planning, conservation practices to enhance wildlife habitat, and practices to enhance the productivity of the land. The Urban Forestry Program provides technical expertise and grants to create and maintain sustainable urban forests. Utilizing experts in forest pests and diseases, the Forest Health Management Program provides information to landowners and makes recommendations to the Board of Forestry regarding the health of California's forests. The L.A. Moran Reforestation Center specializes in cone processing and seed storage providing a vital, long-term depository for private and corporate landowners for their future seedling needs.
